Executive summary

1. The Independent Parliamentary Expenses Authority (IPEA) conducted an Assurance Review of Mr Colin Boyce MP's use of parliamentarians' travel and work resources for family reunion purposes (family reunion travel resources) between 1 July 2021 and 30 June 2023 (period in scope). The Assurance Review forms part of IPEA's 3 Year Assurance Plan.

Scope and Purpose

2. The scope of this Assurance Review is family reunion travel by Mr Colin Boyce and his spouse between 1 July 2021 and 30 June 2023.
3. The purpose of the Assurance Review was to determine whether the family reunion travel resources were used in accordance with the legislative framework.

Engagement with parliamentarian

4. IPEA engaged with Mr Boyce on one occasion to understand the nature of his, and his family member's travel. The details of this interaction are described in the Assessment section below and can also be followed at Attachments 1 to 3.

Assurance Review Findings

5. Having regard to the information made available from Mr Boyce's office, IPEA found that the use of family reunion travel resources was consistent with the legislative framework.

Audit and Assurance function

IPEA's statutory audit function

6. IPEA audits parliamentarians' use of their parliamentary business work resources and the use of travel resources by their staff under section 12 of the Independent Parliamentary Expenses Authority Act 2017 (IPEA Act). IPEA conducts Assurance Reviews to assess the use of resources against the legislative framework to determine if there has been a misuse.
7. Potential outcomes of an Assurance Review include:
 - a. no further action in circumstances where the review has concluded the use of parliamentary business resources was not inconsistent with the legislative framework, or
 - b. administrative remedial action, including penalty where the review has concluded there is evidence the use of parliamentary business resources was not consistent with the legislative framework, or
 - c. an IPEA initiated Ruling or Audit, where there is evidence of systemic or substantial misuse of parliamentary business resources, or
 - d. referral to the Australian Federal Police where compelling prima facie evidence of fraud or other criminal conduct is identified, or

- e. referral to the National Anti-Corruption Commission, where there is clear evidence of serious or systemic corrupt conduct.

Legislative framework

8. IPEA applied the Parliamentary Business Resources Act 2017 (PBR Act) and its associated instruments as the relevant legislation for this Assurance Review. The Parliamentary Business Resources framework is a principles-based framework (legislative framework) that requires parliamentarians to ensure expenditure is incurred for the 'dominant purpose' of conducting parliamentary business and in a manner that represents 'value for money'.
9. The legislation relevant to this Assurance Review is:
 - a. Parliamentary Business Resources Act 2017 (the PBR Act)
 - b. Parliamentary Business Resources Regulations 2017 (the PBR Regulations)
 - c. Parliamentary Business Resources (Parliamentary Business) Determination 2017 (the Determination)
 - d. Parliamentary Business Resources (Commonwealth Transport) Determination 2017.
10. Obligations: The principles-based legislative framework imposes a number of obligations upon parliamentarians in relation to their use of work resources. In summary, parliamentarians are personally responsible and accountable for their use of work resources. They must be prepared to publicly justify their use of work resources for conducting their parliamentary business, and must act ethically and in good faith in using, and accounting for the use of, those resources.
11. Parliamentarians are not able to claim work resources unless their travel:
 - is for the dominant purpose of conducting their parliamentary business;
 - represents value for money; and
 - meets the relevant conditions connected to the travel claim or expense.
12. Section 6 of the PBR Act provides the following meaning of parliamentary business:
 - (1) The parliamentary business of a member means any of the following:
 - (a) the parliamentary duties of a member, being activities of the member that:
 - i. relate directly to the member's role as a member; and
 - ii. are determined for the purposes of paragraph (4)(a);
 - (b) the electorate duties of the member, being activities of the member that:
 - i. support or serve the member's constituents; and
 - ii. are determined for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b);
 - (c) the party political duties of the member, being activities determined for the purposes of paragraph (4)(c);
 - (d) for a member who is an office holder or a Minister of State – the official duties of the member being activities that:
 - i. relate to the member's role as an office holder or Minister of State; and
 - ii. are determined for the purposes of paragraph (4)(d).

13. Subsection 6(4) of the PBR Act provides that the Minister must determine activities of a member that are parliamentary duties of the member, or electorate duties of the member, or party political duties of the member, or official duties of the member. The Determination determines the activities which fall within the four duty streams set out in section 6 of the PBR Act.
14. Section 6 of the PBR Regulations provides the meaning of family reunion purposes as:
- A family member of a member travels for family reunion purposes if:
- (a) the member is travelling within Australia for the dominant purpose of conducting the member's parliamentary business; and
 - (b) the family member travels to accompany or join the member; and
 - (c) the travel by the family member is for the dominant purpose of facilitating the family life of the member's family.
15. Section 4 of the PBR Regulations provides the following meaning of family member:
- (a) the member's spouse or nominee;
 - (b) a dependent child of the member;
 - (c) a designated person in relation to the member.

Assurance Review methodology

Background

16. Under IPEA's Assurance program, IPEA conducts ongoing, systematic analysis of the parliamentary business resources accessed by parliamentarians and their staff via a combination of regular transaction sampling and review of publicly available information.
17. In 2024, IPEA commenced a Preliminary Assessment into family reunion travel by Mr Colin Boyce and his family members during the period in scope.
18. After excluding family travel to and from Canberra, the Preliminary Assessment found that parliamentary business resources were used by Mr Boyce during the period in scope.
19. On 4 February 2025, IPEA commenced an Assurance Review of Mr Boyce's family reunion travel.

Scope of Assurance Review

20. The scope of this Assurance review is family reunion travel by Mr Colin Boyce and his spouse between 1 July 2021 and 30 June 2023. Family travel to and from Canberra to reunite family with the parliamentarian is excluded.

Method

21. IPEA considered the legislative framework and applied the following questions:
- a. What was the dominant purpose of the travel?
 - b. What was the nature of the parliamentary business?
 - c. Did the travel by the family members meet the three-part test under section 6 of the PBR Regulations?

22. In assessing whether the dominant purpose of the travel was parliamentary business, IPEA considered:
- a. the parliamentarian's role; and
 - b. any supporting evidence relating to their travel.
23. IPEA conducted the Assurance Review by examining and assessing:
- a. information held by IPEA, including in the Parliamentary Expenses Management System
 - b. the legislative framework and supporting guidelines
 - c. information provided by the parliamentarian
 - d. the parliamentary sitting timetables from the APH website (www.aph.gov.au).

Assessment of work resources

Summary of findings

Analysis

24. Mr Boyce and his spouse travelled from Brisbane to Townsville between 3 and 5 March 2023 using parliamentary work resources for flights and two nights of travel allowance in Townsville.
25. On 4 February 2025, IPEA wrote to Mr Boyce detailing the requirements of the legislative framework and identifying the travel using parliamentary work resources for the period in scope (Attachment 1). Mr Boyce was asked about the dominant purpose of his travel and the nature of his parliamentary business with reference to the Determination. Mr Boyce was also asked to advise whether his family members' travel met the three-part test in Section 6 of the PBR Regulations. A response was requested by 28 February 2025.
26. A response was received on 7 February 2025. The response stated that Mr Boyce was in Townsville to attend the Liberal National Party (LNP) State Council meeting on 4 March 2023 in his capacity as an elected member of parliament, and that his spouse travelled with him to facilitate their family life (Attachment 2). In support of his response, Mr Boyce's letter included a copy of his diary entries showing his commitments between 3 and 5 March 2023 and the invitation to the LNP State Council meeting. (Attachment 3).
27. IPEA accepts that the dominant purpose of the travel undertaken by Mr Boyce was parliamentary business, specifically party political duties, and that his spouse accompanied him for the dominant purpose of facilitating family life.

Conclusion

28. Having regard to the information made available from Mr Boyce's office, IPEA found that the use of family reunion travel resources was consistent with the legislative framework.

The Independent Parliamentary Expenses Authority (IPEA) has responsibility under the Independent Parliamentary Expenses Authority Act 2017 to review undertake assurance activities in relation to the work expenses of members of parliament.

IPEA is undertaking an Assurance Review of travel and travel-related resources accessed in relation to your family reunion travel between 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2023.

Legislative framework

The use of travel expenses for family reunion must meet the three-part test below, set out in section 6 of the Parliamentary Business Resources Regulations 2017:

A family member of a member travels for family reunion purposes if:

Section 6 of the Parliamentary Business Resources Act 2017 (the PBR Act) and the Parliamentary Business Resources (Parliamentary Business) Determination 2017 (the Determination – Attachment A) define the four streams of parliamentary business. These are parliamentary duties, electorate duties, party political duties and official duties.

The principles parliamentarians are to apply when utilising public resources are set out in part 3 - division 2 of the PBR Act.

Where we have asked about the nature of your parliamentary business, please reference the definition of Parliamentary Business as outlined in the Determination and provide copies of documentation to support your response, such as diary notes, invitations or media reporting.
